Annual Prize Distribution Function 2024-25

Government College Sangrah organized its Annual Prize Distribution Function with great enthusiasm and dignity, graced by the esteemed presence of the Deputy Speaker of the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly and the current MLA of the Renuka Constituency as the Chief Guest. The programme commenced with a vibrant cultural function showcasing the talent, creativity, and cultural richness of the students. The Chief Guest appreciated the efforts of the institution in promoting academic excellence, discipline, and holistic development. During the ceremony, prizes were awarded to meritorious students excelling in academics, sports, NSS, cultural activities, and various college-level competitions. Special appreciation awards were given to outstanding players who brought laurels to the college through their exceptional performance. The Chief Guest encouraged students to continue striving for excellence and to contribute positively to society. The Principal welcomed the dignitaries and highlighted the college's achievements throughout the year. Faculty members and students participated actively, making the event successful and memorable. The ceremony concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all contributors and guests.
