7. Use of ICT Facilities

The college has effectively integrated advanced Information and Communication Technology (ICT) facilities to foster a highly productive and learner-friendly academic environment. Smart classrooms equipped with interactive whiteboards, projectors and digital teaching aids make classroom instruction more engaging and dynamic. Online quiz platforms, virtual classrooms and e-content repositories further support formative assessments, continuous learning and remote access to educational resources. The Language Laboratory, furnished with modern audio-visual tools and speech-enhancement software, plays a crucial role in improving students' communication and linguistic proficiency. In the Geography laboratory, high-quality projectors enhance visual demonstrations, while computer-aided design software strengthens students' practical, analytical and technical skills. ICT infrastructure also improves administrative efficiency through facilities such as high-speed printing and scanning, digital documentation and online attendance management systems. Additionally, campus-wide Wi-Fi, online feedback mechanisms, digital literacy programs and easy access to learning management systems have transformed the overall teaching-learning process. These initiatives collectively promote student engagement, enhance accessibility and contribute significantly to better academic outcomes and institutional growth.
