I. Sports Facilities

The college actively promotes a vibrant sports culture through a wide range of activities. The annual athletic meet was organized on February 21–22, 2025. To ensure fair and competitive selection, every staff member participates responsibly in the selection process. Trials are conducted on the college ground under the vigilant supervision of the sports in-charge Sh. Manoj Kumar and teachers. By fostering sportsmanship, teamwork and physical fitness, the college provides an effective platform for identifying and nurturing talent. Through continuous encouragement of participation in various sports and recreational activities, the institution cultivates a holistic learning environment that harmoniously balances academics with physical well-being, thereby promoting overall student development and excellence.
